Gospel Reflection

USE YOUR GIFTS TO TOUCH LIVES!

My Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

One of the greatest tragedies in life is not that we lack opportunities, but that we sometimes fail to recognize and use the opportunities God has given us. Every human being is born with gifts, talents and abilities, but not everyone puts them to good use. The readings of today, invite us to reflect on the gifts, talents and opportunities God has entrusted to each of us. The first reading presents a woman who faithfully uses her abilities for the good of others, while the Gospel challenges us not to bury our God-given talents. St. Paul, in the second reading, reminds us to remain spiritually awake because one day we shall all give an account of how we have lived. What are we doing with what God has placed in our hands?

The first reading from the Book of Proverbs presents us with the image of a worthy woman whose value is far greater than precious jewels. She is hardworking, generous, responsible and compassionate. She uses her hands to work, her heart to care, and her resources to support those in need. The reading tells us that she reaches out her hands to the poor and extends her arms to the needy. Her greatness is not measured by beauty, wealth or social status, but by her character, goodness and fear of the Lord. This reading teaches us that our talents are not given merely for personal advancement but also for the service of others. A good mother uses her gifts to nurture her family; a teacher uses knowledge to educate others; a doctor uses professional skills to save lives; a priest uses his vocation to lead souls to God; a young person uses energy and creativity to make society better. Every gift becomes meaningful when it is placed at the service of love. Sometimes, the greatest talent we possess is not the ability to sing, preach, teach or lead, but the ability to listen, encourage, forgive, comfort and make another person feel loved. God is not only interested in what we achieve but also in the goodness we bring into the lives of others.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds the Thessalonians that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. Therefore, Christians must not live in spiritual darkness or become careless about their relationship with God. He encourages us to remain awake, sober and vigilant because we are children of light and children of the day. This message connects beautifully with the Gospel. The master eventually returned and demanded an account of what he had entrusted to his servants. In the same way, one day each of us will stand before God and give an account of how we have lived our lives. We will not be judged simply by the positions we occupied, the money we accumulated, the houses we built or the recognition we received. We will be called to account for how we used our time, opportunities, abilities and resources. The Christian life is not a life of passive waiting for heaven; it is a life of active preparation through faith, love and service.

The greatest lesson from today's readings is that God has not created anyone empty-handed, and nobody is without a gift to offer. The greatest mistake we can make is to bury our talents because of fear, insecurity, comparison or the belief that what we have is too small to make a difference. Some people bury their talents because they are afraid of failure; others because they are waiting for perfect conditions; some because they spend too much time comparing themselves with others. But remember, the servant who received two talents was praised just as much as the one who received five. All three readings share one central message: God expects us to be faithful and productive with whatever He has entrusted to us no matter how small or insignificant we feel our talents may be. God is not asking us to become somebody else; but the best version of the people He created us to be.

Do not die with your gifts unused, your dreams unfulfilled, your love unexpressed and your goodness hidden. Let our life be a blessing to our families, our Church and society. When God eventually calls us home, may we not stand before Him with buried talents and wasted opportunities, but with lives that have multiplied the gifts He entrusted to us. May we all hear those wonderful words: "Well done, good and faithful servant; come and share your master's happiness." Amen.

Current Events and More

Thank you for sharing such lovely pictures of your deceased loved ones with us for the Mass of Remembrance. It's hard to believe that Advent is just around the corner! With that in mind, next weekend the Angel Giving Trees will be going up so please remember to pick up your pictures this weekend. Thank you, again.

Thanksgiving Day Mass

Begin your day of thanks next week by attending the parish Thanksgiving Day Mass with bread exchange on Thursday, November 26 at 9 am in the church.

When you come to Mass, bring a wrapped loaf of bread or rolls (baked or bought) and place it on the table near the altar. After Mass, the bread is blessed, then for those who brought a loaf can take a different loaf home to enjoy with their Thanksgiving meal! Please join us.

Poinsettia Donations

We invite you to help make St. Benedict full of joyous color during the Christmas Season by making a donation toward our Christmas poinsettias in memory or in honor of your loved ones. Envelopes are available in the narthex and the lobby. Please place your completed envelope in the collection basket on or before Sunday, December 13. Thank you for helping us to beautify our sacred space!

Mortgage Support Collection

St. Benedict Church will be taking a second collection next weekend, Nov 21/22, to support our mortgage payment plan.

We kindly invite you to contribute to this effort by giving a little extra each month. Every contribution, big or small, brings us closer to paying down the debt.

Mortgage Support Collection envelopes are in the pews and are in the envelopes you get in the mail. Thank you so much, we appreciate your help.

Angel Giving Trees 2026

Keep your eyes open...Angel Giving Trees will be up and FULL of ornaments next weekend, November 21/22. Please consider grabbing an ornament or two and returning the new unwrapped items, with the ornament attached, to Annex 3 by December 18th.

Volunteers are also needed to check each tree after each Mass to add ornaments, as needed, through Sunday, December 20.

For more information or to volunteer, contact Val at eeotz1@gmail.com

Holiday Office Hours

The parish office will close at noon on November 25, and be closed on Thanksgiving and the day after, November 26 and 27. For emergencies requiring a priest, call 480.961.1610 ext. 317.

Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection

Next weekend we will be collecting envelopes for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. The theme this year is "Working on the Margins." This collection addresses the root causes of poverty in America through promotion and support of community-controlled, self-help organizations and transformative education. Envelopes can be found in the lobby. Thank you for your contribution.

Christmas Concert & Cookie Exchange

Save the date! Enjoy an evening of Christmas Celebration with St. Benedict's "Christmas Concert, Sing Along, and Cookie Exchange" on Thursday, December 3 at 6:30 pm. Enjoy a selection of specially prepared Christmas songs by the St. Benedict Choirs, as well as some of your favorite classics. Cap off the evening with a Christmas cookie exchange; bring a dozen Christmas cookies, take a dozen home. There will be plenty of cheer to go around!

Email and Text Alert

Some parishioners are receiving emails and text messages that suggest our priests, deacons or staff are requesting a favor or a gift. These are "SPAM" and should be immediately deleted. We would never send an email or text for these reasons. Unfortunately, we have no way to restrict or stop these emails or texts.

Knights of Columbus

Knights in Action - visit us at www.KofC12246.org

On Sunday, November 1, Brother Knights cleaned up after the Tempe Tareada at the Tempe Library location. We also sponsored a Catholic Citizens Essay Contest for the 8th grade class of St. John Bosco. Three finalists were chosen: 1st - B.R., 2nd - G.K., 3rd - G.T. Over the weekend we helped hand out SVdP food bags; and finally for the Coats for Kids program, we are asking for help donating coats/jackets. To sign up, go to https://kofc12246.org/council-sign-ups/

During the Knights Memorial Mass (Tuesday, November 10, we honored and remembered our fallen Knights and family members: Fr. Bob Binta, Dan Malloy, Russ Spencer, and Doug Gasser. Rest in peace, Brothers.

Upcoming Events

On Tuesday, November 17, there will be a COR meeting at Corpus Christi Church. All men over 18 years of age are welcome to attend this men's spirituality group program focusing on Saints and the Knights of Columbus "Into the Breach" series.

On Wednesday, November 18, we will be hosting the Parish Rosary at 7 pm in the chapel. Let's pray together.

We are truly blessed and thankful to serve. Please visit us at kofc12246.org for upcoming events.

SVdP Adopt-A-Family

If you would like your family to be considered for the Adopt-A-Family program (families with children 1-15 years old), please call St. Vincent de Paul at 480.961.1610, ext 315. Leave a message with your name, phone number and that you would like to be considered.

We are still accepting sponsors as well.

St. Vincent de Paul

The good news of today's Gospel is the extravagance of what is being given to us. All we need to do is to be faithful in "small matters." The cost of remaining faithful is small compared to the peace and love it brings to those in need.

Please share God's extravagant love by donating food bags for our Feeding Our Neighbors Together Food Drive. Your generosity shows that you are hearing the words of Jesus and living them out.

As always, if you find yourself in need of St. Vincent de Paul assistance or information, please call the parish office at 480.961.1610 ext. 315.

Income Tax Planning

Tax planning time is here!

Did you know that for the 2026 tax year, Arizona allows dollar-for-dollar individual income tax credits for contributions to certified charitable organizations (like SVdP). You do not need to itemize deductions to claim these credits. Tax Credit Limits: $506 for single, married filing separately, or head of household; $1,009 for married filing jointly.

You can make a one time donation through Realm or write a check to: St Benedict Conference of SVDP. Thank you for your consideration to help those in need in our community! We are grateful for your support as are those that we serve. Thank you!

Catholic Cemeteries and Funeral Homes

Preplanning your Catholic funeral and burial is one of the greatest gifts you can give your loved ones. For more than 100 years, Catholic Cemeteries and Funeral Homes have been providing care and support to families in their time of need.

Counselors will be visiting our parish the weekend of December 5/6 after all Masses. Their caring and professional staff will help guide you and your family in a way that honors the rich traditions and spiritual foundations of our Catholic faith.

For more information, please call Angie Parker at 602.309.1746 or Agustin Vizcarra at 602.432.5956.

Light A Candle, Say A Prayer

By now you have noticed that the candle lighting situation in the church has changed. Instead of having to purchase a 3-day candle to light, the candles are now already in the holders.

We are thankful to Frank Polimene who custom-made the donation boxes for lighting the candles. They match the wood on the altar and ambo! We still ask for $3 per candle, although now it is on the honor system. Drop your donation in the box, scan the QR code, or use the kiosk in the lobby. It's great to see so many candles burning in the church again! Thank you.

Reflexión sobre las Escrituras

¡UTILIZA TUS DOTES PARA MARCAR LA DIFERENCIA EN LA VIDA DE OTROS!

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Una de las mayores tragedias de la vida no es que nos falten oportunidades, sino que a veces no sabemos reconocer ni aprovechar las oportunidades que Dios nos ha dado. Todo ser humano nace con dones, talentos y habilidades, pero no todo el mundo los aprovecha como es debido. Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a reflexionar sobre los dones, los talentos y las oportunidades que Dios nos ha confiado a cada uno de nosotros. La primera lectura nos presenta a una mujer que utiliza fielmente sus capacidades en beneficio de los demás, mientras que el Evangelio nos anima a no enterrar los dones que Dios nos ha concedido. San Pablo, en la segunda lectura, nos recuerda que debemos permanecer espiritualmente despiertos, porque algún día todos tendremos que rendir cuentas de cómo hemos vivido. ¿Qué estamos haciendo con lo que Dios ha puesto en nuestras manos?

La primera lectura, tomada del Libro de los Proverbios, nos presenta la imagen de una mujer digna cuyo valor supera con creces al de las joyas preciosas. Es trabajadora, generosa, responsable y compasiva. Utiliza sus manos para trabajar, su corazón para cuidar de los demás y sus recursos para ayudar a los necesitados. La lectura nos dice que tiende sus manos a los pobres y extiende sus brazos a los necesitados. Su grandeza no se mide por la belleza, la riqueza o el estatus social, sino por su carácter, su bondad y su temor de Dios. Esta lectura nos enseña que nuestros talentos no nos son concedidos únicamente para nuestro progreso personal, sino también para el servicio a los demás. Una buena madre utiliza sus dones para cuidar de su familia; un profesor utiliza sus conocimientos para educar a los demás; un médico utiliza sus habilidades profesionales para salvar vidas; un sacerdote utiliza su vocación para guiar las almas hacia Dios; un joven utiliza su energía y creatividad para mejorar la sociedad. Todo don cobra sentido cuando se pone al servicio del amor. A veces, el mayor talento que poseemos no es la capacidad de cantar, predicar, enseñar o liderar, sino la capacidad de escuchar, animar, perdonar, consolar y hacer que otra persona se sienta amada. A Dios no solo le interesa lo que logramos, sino también el bien que aportamos a la vida de los demás.

En la segunda lectura, san Pablo recuerda a los tesalonicenses que el día del Señor llegará como un ladrón en la noche. Por eso, los cristianos no deben vivir en la oscuridad espiritual ni descuidar su relación con Dios. Nos anima a permanecer despiertos, sobrios y vigilantes, porque somos hijos de la luz e hijos del día. Este mensaje encaja a la perfección con el Evangelio. El señor regresó finalmente y exigió cuentas de lo que había confiado a sus siervos. Del mismo modo, algún día cada uno de nosotros se presentará ante Dios y dará cuenta de cómo ha vivido su vida. No seremos juzgados simplemente por los cargos que hayamos ocupado, el dinero que hayamos acumulado, las casas que hayamos construido o el reconocimiento que hayamos recibido. Se nos pedirá que rindamos cuentas de cómo hemos empleado nuestro tiempo, nuestras oportunidades, nuestras capacidades y nuestros recursos. La vida cristiana no es una vida de espera pasiva del cielo; es una vida de preparación activa a través de la fe, el amor y el servicio.

La mayor lección que nos aportan las lecturas de hoy es que Dios no ha creado a nadie con las manos vacías, y que nadie carece de un don que ofrecer. El mayor error que podemos cometer es enterrar nuestros talentos por miedo, inseguridad, por compararnos con los demás o por creer que lo que tenemos es demasiado insignificante como para marcar la diferencia. Algunas personas entierran sus talentos porque temen fracasar; otras, porque esperan que se den las condiciones perfectas; y otras, porque dedican demasiado tiempo a compararse con los demás. Pero recuerda: el siervo que recibió dos talentos fue elogiado tanto como el que recibió cinco. Las tres lecturas comparten un mensaje central: Dios espera que seamos fieles y productivos con todo lo que nos ha confiado, por muy pequeños o insignificantes que nos parezcan nuestros talentos. Dios no nos pide que nos convirtamos en otra persona, sino en la mejor versión de las personas que Él quiso que fuéramos.

No mueras sin haber utilizado tus dones, sin haber cumplido tus sueños, sin haber expresado tu amor y sin haber mostrado tu bondad. Que nuestra vida sea una bendición para nuestras familias, nuestra Iglesia y la sociedad. Cuando Dios nos llame finalmente a su lado, que no nos presentemos ante Él con talentos enterrados y oportunidades desperdiciadas, sino con vidas que hayan multiplicado los dones que Él nos confió. Que todos podamos escuchar estas maravillosas palabras: «Bien hecho, siervo bueno y fiel; ven y comparte la felicidad de tu señor». Amén.

Tienda de regalos

¡Bienvenidos! Nuestra tienda de regalos de St Benedict, situada debajo del campanario, ofrece una amplia variedad de artículos que no encontrarás en ningún otro sitio. Además, nos dedicamos a servir a nuestra fe, a nuestra familia y a nuestros amigos ofreciéndoles artículos religiosos que les permiten personalizar su fe. ¡Entra y salúdanos!

Fotografías en la Mesa del Recuerdo

Gracias por compartir con nosotros estas fotos tan bonitas de vuestros seres queridos fallecidos para la misa conmemorativa. ¡Cuesta creer que el Adviento esté ya a la vuelta de la esquina! Teniendo esto en cuenta, el próximo fin de semana se instalarán los «Árboles de los Ángeles», así que no olvidéis recoger vuestras fotos este fin de semana. Gracias de nuevo.

San Vicente de Paúl

La buena noticia del Evangelio de hoy es la generosidad de lo que se nos está dando. Lo único que tenemos que hacer es ser fieles en «las cosas pequeñas». El precio de mantener la fidelidad es pequeño en comparación con la paz y el amor que aporta a quienes lo necesitan.

Por favor, comparte el amor desmesurado de Dios donando bolsas de comida para nuestra campaña de recogida de alimentos «Feeding Our Neighbors Together». Tu generosidad demuestra que estás escuchando las palabras de Jesús y las pones en práctica.

Te agradecemos tu apoyo, al igual que las personas a las que prestamos servicio. ¡Gracias!

A Note From The SJB Principal

Dear St. Benedict Parishioners,

Is there a St. John Bosco student in your life? Be sure to ask them about our Running with Rosco fundraiser, going on right now! Students are collecting donations from all over the country to help us update our curriculum, improve our restrooms and technology, and earn fun prizes along the way.

More information on donating, volunteering, and the November 25th fun run may be found by scanning this QR code or visiting https://sjbosco.org/runningwithrosco

Joyful Blessings,
