Gospel Reflection

CHRIST THE KING REFLECTED IN LOVE, SERVICE AND COMPASSION

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, the final Sunday of the liturgical year. The kingship of Jesus is very different. His throne is the Cross, His crown is made of thorns, His royal garment is humility, and His power is expressed through love and self-sacrifice. Jesus is not a king who rules by fear, intimidation or oppression; but one who serves, forgives, heals, protects and gives His life for His people. If Christ is truly our King, does He also reign in our hearts, our families, our decisions, our relationships and our daily lives?

In the first reading, the prophet Ezekiel presents God as a shepherd who personally searches for His scattered sheep. He promises to rescue the lost, bring back the strayed, bind up the injured and strengthen the weak. What a beautiful picture of the Kingship of God! God does not abandon His own. Jesus fulfils this promise by becoming the Good Shepherd who knows His sheep and lays down His life for them. This reading reminds us that the Kingship of Christ is founded on care, compassion and responsibility. As Christians, especially those entrusted with leadership in our families, communities, workplaces and Church, we are called to imitate this shepherding style of leadership. Parents must care for their children, leaders must serve those entrusted to them, priests must shepherd their people with love, and those who are strong must support the weak. A true Christian leader does not use people for personal advantage; rather, he or she uses authority to uplift, protect and serve others. The question is not how many people serve us, but how many people experience God's love through our service.

In the second reading, St Paul reminds us that Christ has risen from the dead and is the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. Through His resurrection, Jesus has conquered the power of sin and death, and He will eventually bring everything under His authority. This is the ultimate victory of Christ the King. His kingdom is eternal, and His victory gives us hope beyond suffering, injustice and death. The Gospel takes this kingship a step further by showing us how Christ will judge humanity when He comes in glory. Interestingly, Jesus does not say that He will judge us simply by the number of prayers we have said, the religious titles we have acquired, the positions we have occupied or the wealth we have accumulated. Instead, He identifies Himself with the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked, the sick and those in prison. He tells the righteous: "Whatever you did to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did to me." This is a profound revelation: Christ our King is mysteriously present in the suffering and vulnerable people around us. Whenever we feed the hungry, welcome the stranger, visit the sick, comfort the grieving or assist someone in need, we are serving Christ Himself.

My dear brothers and sisters, today's Gospel leaves us with a message we cannot afford to ignore: At the end of our lives, we shall be judged by the love we have shown. We may not remember every opportunity we have had to encounter Christ, but Christ identifies Himself with the people who need our compassion. Sometimes, the person who is hungry is not only hungry for food but also for kindness, attention and acceptance. The person who is sick may need medicine, but also a comforting presence. The stranger may need accommodation, but also someone who makes him feel welcome. The prisoner may need freedom, but also someone who reminds him that he has not lost his human dignity. As we celebrate Christ the King, let us allow Him to reign in our hearts by making love the foundation of our relationships and compassion the language of our daily lives. May He never find us too busy to help, too proud to forgive, too selfish to share or too indifferent to notice the suffering of others. Amen.

Current Events and More

Mortgage Support Collection

St. Benedict Church will be taking a second collection this weekend, Nov 21/22, to support the mortgage payment plan.

We kindly invite you to contribute to this effort by giving a little extra each month. Every contribution, big or small, brings us closer to paying down the debt.

Mortgage Support Collection envelopes are in the pews and are in the envelopes you get in the mail. Thank you so much, we appreciate your help.

Angel Giving Trees 2026

As you have probably seen by now, the Giving Trees are up and stocked with ornaments depicting what our two charities are needing the most.

Please consider taking an ornament or two, purchasing the item and returning it UNWRAPPED (with the ornament attached) the following weekend to Annex 3. Our little elves will happily accept your donation and ensure that Catholic Charities of East Mesa and Helen's Hope Chest receive the items so they can provide for children ages birth to 17-years old. Many of these children are in foster care, some are just in need. Please return the items to the church no later than December 18th so they can be sorted and delivered.

Thank you for your time and treasure through your participation in this worthwhile outreach.

Advent Penance Service

The Advent Communal Penance Service this year will be on Tuesday, December 15 at 6 pm in the church.

The evening begins with prayer and an examination of conscience. Individual confessions follow. Priests from our neighboring parishes will also be here to hear confessions. Save the date!

Thanksgiving Day Mass

Begin your day of thanks this week by attending the parish Thanksgiving Day Mass with bread exchange on Thursday, November 26 at 9 am in the church.

When you come to Mass, bring a wrapped loaf of bread or rolls (baked or bought) and place it on the table near the altar. After Mass, the bread is blessed, then for those who brought a loaf can take a different loaf home to enjoy with their Thanksgiving meal! Please join us.

Blessing for Thanksgiving

Dear Lord,
We thank You for the gifts of the season.
We ask Your blessing upon this Thanksgiving meal.
Bless each of us gathered,
hold the prayers we carry within us,
anoint our conversations and company with Your light and hope. Amen.

Christmas Concert & Cookie Exchange

Save the date! Enjoy an evening of Christmas Celebration with St. Benedict's "Christmas Concert, Sing Along, and Cookie Exchange" on Thursday, December 3 at 6:30 pm.

Enjoy a selection of specially prepared Christmas songs by the St. Benedict Choirs, as well as some of your favorite classics. Cap off the evening with a Christmas cookie exchange; bring a dozen Christmas cookies, take a dozen home. There will be plenty of cheer to go around!

Catholic Campaign for Human Development Collection

This weekend we will be collecting envelopes for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. The theme this year is "Working on the Margins." This collection addresses the root causes of poverty in America through promotion and support of community-controlled, self-help organizations and transformative education. Envelopes can be found in the lobby and near the south doors to the church. Thank you for your contribution.

Blessing of the Advent Wreath

The use of the Advent Wreath is a traditional practice which has found its place in the Church as well as in the home. The blessing of the Advent Wreath takes place on the First Sunday of Advent, next Sunday! When this blessing is celebrated in the home, it is appropriate that it be blessed by a parent or another member of the family.

All make the sign of the cross as the leader says:

Our help is in the name of the Lord.
Response (R): Who made heaven and earth.

Then the Scripture, Isaiah 9:1-2,5-6 is read. Then,

The Word of the Lord
R: Thanks be to God.

With hands joined, the leader says:

Lord our God, we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: He is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples, He is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, He is the Savior of every nation.
Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath. May the wreath and its light be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation. May He come quickly and not delay. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R: Amen

The blessing may conclude with a verse from "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel."

Knights of Columbus

Dear St. Benedict's community, thank you for all of your support and prayers.

On November 14, four of our Soccer Challenge champions represented St. Benedict and St. John Bosco at the State Soccer Challenge event at Notre Dame Prep. Thank you to all the parents and champions!

Upcoming Events:

During this Thanksgiving week, we humbly ask for your support once again for Coats for Kids, benefiting two family shelters: Vista Colina and De Colores. Please pray and consider donating a coat this year. You can sign up at KofC12246.org by clicking on either location.

Additionally, the Knights of Columbus will be donating coloring books to the 9 am Children's Liturgy during the month of December 2026.

The Knights of Columbus Women's Auxiliary will also be handing out "Keep Christ In Christmas" magnets during the month of December. Donations will be accepted.

We are truly blessed and thankful to serve. Please visit us at kofc12246.org for upcoming events.

Vocations

"Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me."

(Matthew 25:40)

Christ, the King of kings, calls us to serve Him through our care for others. Every vocation, priesthood, consecrated life, or holy matrimony, is an opportunity to answer His call by loving and serving those in need.

How is God inviting you to live out this service in your life, bringing Christ's mercy and compassion to the world? Talk to your priest or reach out to the Vocation Office at 602.354.2000 or go to the website at http://dphx.org/vocations.

St. Vincent de Paul

Today, as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear Jesus say, "Whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." We found the face of Christ in the families we served this weekend at our Thanksgiving Event. Thank you for helping us serve those less fortunate. Through your generosity, we were able to help many, many families have a meaningful Thanksgiving.

Thank you so much and Happy Thanksgiving!

SVdP Thank You

St Benedict's conference of SVdP would like to recognize and extend a special thank you to the Albertsons, Safeway, and Vons Foundation and Gift Card Bank for their generous donation of $17,000 in grocery store gift cards. These gift cards provided families we serve with the dignity of choice, and empowered them to shop for food and household items they needed this holiday season. We are most grateful.

Income Tax Planning

Did you know that for the 2026 tax year, Arizona allows dollar-for-dollar individual income tax credits for contributions to certified charitable organizations (like SVdP). You do not need to itemize deductions to claim these credits. Tax Credit Limits: $506 for single, married filing separately, or head of household; $1,009 for married filing jointly.

You can make a one time donation through Realm or write a check to: St Benedict Conference of SVDP. Thank you for your consideration to help those in need in our community!

Light A Candle, Say A Prayer

By now you have noticed that the candle lighting situation in the church has changed. Instead of having to purchase a 3-day candle to light, the candles are now already in the holders.

We are thankful to Frank Polimene who custom-made the donation boxes for lighting the candles. They match the wood on the altar and ambo! We still ask for $3 per candle, although now it is on the honor system. Drop your donation in the box, use the QR code, or use the kiosk in the lobby. It's great to see so many candles burning in the church again! Thank you.

Reflexión sobre las Escrituras

CRISTO REY REFLEJADO EN EL AMOR, EL SERVICIO Y LA COMPASIÓN

Mis queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Hoy celebramos la Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo, el último domingo del año litúrgico. La realeza de Jesús es muy diferente. Su trono es la Cruz, su corona está hecha de espinas, su vestidura real es la humildad y su poder se expresa a través del amor y el sacrificio. Jesús no es un rey que gobierna mediante el miedo, la intimidación o la opresión, sino uno que sirve, perdona, sana, protege y da su vida por su pueblo. Si Cristo es verdaderamente nuestro Rey, ¿reina también en nuestros corazones, en nuestras familias, en nuestras decisiones, en nuestras relaciones y en nuestra vida cotidiana?

En la primera lectura, el profeta Ezequiel presenta a Dios como un pastor que busca personalmente a sus ovejas dispersas. Promete rescatar a las perdidas, traer de vuelta a las descarriadas, vendar a las heridas y fortalecer a las débiles. ¡Qué hermosa imagen de la realeza de Dios! Dios no abandona a los suyos. Jesús cumple esta promesa al convertirse en el Buen Pastor que conoce a sus ovejas y da su vida por ellas. Esta lectura nos recuerda que el reinado de Cristo se basa en el cuidado, la compasión y la responsabilidad. Como cristianos, especialmente aquellos a quienes se nos ha confiado el liderazgo en nuestras familias, comunidades, lugares de trabajo y en la Iglesia, estamos llamados a imitar este estilo de liderazgo pastoral. Los padres deben cuidar de sus hijos, los líderes deben servir a quienes les han sido confiados, los sacerdotes deben pastorear a su pueblo con amor, y los fuertes deben apoyar a los débiles. Un verdadero líder cristiano no utiliza a las personas para su propio beneficio; más bien, emplea su autoridad para animar, proteger y servir a los demás. La cuestión no es cuántas personas nos sirven, sino cuántas personas experimentan el amor de Dios a través de nuestro servicio.

En la segunda lectura, san Pablo nos recuerda que Cristo ha resucitado de entre los muertos y es las primicias de los que han fallecido. Mediante su resurrección, Jesús ha vencido el poder del pecado y de la muerte, y finalmente someterá todo a su autoridad. Esta es la victoria definitiva de Cristo Rey. Su reino es eterno, y su victoria nos da esperanza más allá del sufrimiento, la injusticia y la muerte. El Evangelio lleva esta realeza un paso más allá al mostrarnos cómo Cristo juzgará a la humanidad cuando venga en gloria. Curiosamente, Jesús no dice que nos juzgará simplemente por el número de oraciones que hayamos rezado, los títulos religiosos que hayamos obtenido, los cargos que hayamos ocupado o la riqueza que hayamos acumulado. En cambio, se identifica con los hambrientos, los sedientos, los extranjeros, los desnudos, los enfermos y los que están en prisión. Les dice a los justos: «Todo lo que hicisteis a uno de estos hermanos y hermanas míos más pequeños, a mí me lo hicisteis». Esta es una revelación profunda: Cristo, nuestro Rey, está misteriosamente presente en las personas que sufren y son vulnerables a nuestro alrededor. Cada vez que alimentamos al hambriento, acogemos al forastero, visitamos al enfermo, consolamos al afligido o ayudamos a alguien necesitado, estamos sirviendo al propio Cristo.

Queridos hermanos y hermanas, el Evangelio de hoy nos deja un mensaje que no podemos permitirnos ignorar: al final de nuestras vidas, seremos juzgados por el amor que hayamos demostrado. Puede que no recordemos todas las ocasiones en las que hemos tenido la oportunidad de encontrarnos con Cristo, pero Cristo se identifica con las personas que necesitan nuestra compasión. A veces, la persona que tiene hambre no solo tiene hambre de comida, sino también de amabilidad, atención y aceptación. La persona que está enferma puede necesitar medicinas, pero también una presencia reconfortante. El forastero puede necesitar un lugar donde alojarse, pero también a alguien que le haga sentir bienvenido. El preso puede necesitar la libertad, pero también a alguien que le recuerde que no ha perdido su dignidad humana. Al celebrar a Cristo Rey, dejemos que Él reine en nuestros corazones haciendo del amor el fundamento de nuestras relaciones y de la compasión el lenguaje de nuestra vida cotidiana. Que Él nunca nos encuentre demasiado ocupados para ayudar, demasiado orgullosos para perdonar, demasiado egoístas para compartir o demasiado indiferentes para percatarnos del sufrimiento de los demás. Amén.

Misa del Día de Acción de Gracias

Empieza tu día de acción de gracias de esta semana asistiendo a la misa parroquial del Día de Acción de Gracias, en la que se celebrará el intercambio de pan, el jueves 26 de noviembre a las 9:00 h en la iglesia.

Cuando vengas a misa, trae una barra de pan o unos panecillos envueltos (horneados o comprados) y colócalos sobre la mesa junto al altar. Después de la misa, se bendice el pan y, a continuación, quienes hayan traído una barra podrán llevarse otra a casa para disfrutarla con su comida de Acción de Gracias. ¡Te esperamos!

Libritos azules

Este fin de semana podréis llevaros a casa el «Librito azul» para el Adviento y la Navidad. Utilizad estos folletos a diario para leer las reflexiones de seis minutos que os ayudarán a profundizar en esta época tan especial. Uno por familia, por favor.

Tienda de regalos

¡Bienvenidos! Nuestra tienda de regalos de San Benito, situada debajo del campanario, ofrece una amplia variedad de artículos que no encontrarás en ningún otro sitio. Además, nos dedicamos a servir a nuestra fe, a nuestra familia y a nuestros amigos ofreciéndoles artículos religiosos que les permiten personalizar su fe. ¡Entra y salúdanos!

La semana que viene: bendición de la corona de Adviento

San Vicente de Paúl

Hoy, al celebrar la festividad de Cristo Rey, escuchamos a Jesús decir: «Todo lo que hicisteis por uno de mis hermanos y hermanas más pequeños, me lo hicisteis a mí». Hemos encontrado el rostro de Cristo en las familias a las que hemos atendido este fin de semana en nuestro evento de Acción de Gracias. Gracias por ayudarnos a servir a los más desfavorecidos. Gracias a vuestra generosidad, hemos podido ayudar a muchísimas familias a pasar un Día de Acción de Gracias lleno de significado. ¡Muchísimas gracias y feliz Día de Acción de Gracias!

St. John Bosco Catholic School
A ministry of the Parish of St. Benedict

A Note From The SJB Principal

Dear St. Benedict Parishioners,

I'm delighted to report that St. John Bosco Catholic School had a fantastic turnout for our Veterans Day Flag Ceremony and Open House. More than 40 families toured our campus, and many immediately submitted applications for the 2027-2028 school year. We are thrilled to welcome this fresh influx of new families next year!

Our school community is now in the final stretch of one of our favorite fall traditions: Running with Rosco! The annual event takes place the day before Thanksgiving, when students, staff, and families are invited to run, jog, skip, or walk around our athletic fields with Rosco the Bulldog and other lovable mascots from around town.

As one of the school's main fundraising events, students spent the month of November asking their friends and family near and far to support our school by donating to their fundraising page. If you haven't been tapped yet, there is still time! Students are graciously accepting support all the way up to race day — Wednesday, November 25.

Joyful Blessings,
Jamie Bescak, M.Ed., Principal | 480.219.4848
